

Why Won't You

Chris Grey & The BlueSpand

Why don't you see my love is strong
Why won't you tell me what I'm doin' wrong
It feels like our love, our love is on the line
Somebody might leave you behind

But why don't you feel our love is real
I tried all I can but girl I'm just a man
I gave you my love and you threw it away
I did my best, dear baby, to make you stay

Why do I feel left alone
And why do I cry here on my own
Somewhere deep down my heart, yeah deep down in my heart
I know, pretty baby, that our love will fall apart

Why don't you see my love is real
I tried so hard, tried to make you feel
I can't believe what I'm gonna do
Well somebody honey is gonna walk out on you

Oh, why do I feel left alone
And why do I fight here on my own
Somewhere deep down my heart, yeah deep down in my heart
I know that you love me but your love will fall apart

Why don't you see my love is strong
Why don't you tell me what I'm doin' wrong
It feels like our love, our love ain't on your mind
Somebody might leave you behind
